From Jack Bachelier, North Carolina Extension Cotton Entomologist

We'll provide three additional cotton scouting schools this coming week; one each in Halifax County at 9:30 am and in Northampton County at 1:00 pm next Tuesday July 22 at the county extension offices; and a third school in Wilson County at 10:00 am in the American Legion Hall in Elm City on Thursday, July 24. Contact the respective county agent for further details. Soybean insect scouting will also be covered at the Halifax school.
